

CELEBRATE WITH DAIRY

AT HOME

GET MOOVING IN THE RIGHT DIRECTION!

With kids home from school, get them off the screen and into the kitchen to help prepare some fun and tasty recipes, all made with five or fewer ingredients – which you likely have in your fridge and pantry right now. Including three servings of dairy each day helps kids get the vitamins and minerals they need for their growing bodies.

Double Blueberry Greek Yogurt Waffles

Simply add blueberry Greek yogurt to your favorite waffle mix, along with an egg and fresh blueberries, if you have them, to a make moist, protein-packed breakfast that's freezer-friendly.

Substitute another flavor of yogurt and fruit if you want to switch it up throughout the week, too!

5 Recipes That Are 5 Ingredients or Less to Make with Kids

Easy Cheese Quesadillas

Kids will love making personal quesadillas using tortillas and whatever cheese you have in the fridge, plus mixing in any available veggies, protein and spices.

Enjoy with a dollop of salsa, sour cream or Greek yogurt!

Peanut Butter Yogurt Fruit Pizzas

Spread a Greek yogurt-peanut butter sauce on rice cakes, then top with fresh fruit, granola, chocolate chips, honey or nuts!

Monster Cookie Dough Dip

Make this simple high-protein snack right in the Greek yogurt container! All you need is peanut butter, granola and some chocolate candies.

Mix it all up and enjoy with apple slices or pretzels.

Milk & Cereal Breakfast Popsicles

Combine mashed banana with strawberry milk and Greek yogurt, then sprinkle in cereal and freeze to make these easy pops. Try a chocolate or white milk version, too.
